ELECTION NEWS.

Some Official Returns Now Coming In.

NO IMPORTANT CHANGES.

The Next United States Senate Will Have a Bare Republican Majority. While the House Will Be Democratic by One Hundred and Fifty-Four—Election News in General.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—From the latest returns it appears that the senate, after March 4, 1891, will stand forty-two Democrats to forty-five Republicans, with one seat from New Hampshire in doubt. The house will have a Democratic majority of 154.

Tennessee.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Semi-official returns from all counties in the First Tennessee congressional district give the present incumbent, Taylor, Republican, 800 majority over Butler, also Republican. It was at first thought that Butler was elected.

Official returns from some counties in the Second district and semi-official returns from the remainder show that Houk, Republican, is returned to congress by almost 5,000 majority. This is a loss to the Republicans of 8,000 votes, as the district has heretofore given one of the largest Republican majorities in the United States. The Democrats gained slightly in the legislature from East Tennessee.

Washington.
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—Complete and incomplete returns from all but three counties in the state of Washington give Wilson, Republican, 18,031. As the vote throughout the state was light, this is thought to be considerably more than half of the total vote. Wilson's majority in the state will probably be between 7,000 and 8,000. In 1889 Wilson's majority was 9,947. The legislature now stands: Senate—Republicans, 31; Democrats, 2; doubtful, 1. House—Republicans, 61; Democrats, 17.

Kansas.
KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—The official canvass is being made at Topeka and has progressed far enough to show that the entire Republican state ticket has been elected with the exception of A. B. Kellogg, who is defeated for election as attorney general by Ives, the Farmers' Alliance candidate. The Republican majority is placed at about 10,000. The Kansas delegation will stand two Republican and five Farmers' Alliance. The legislature is still believed to be Farmers' Alliance.

New Hampshire.
BOSTON, Nov. 8.—A special to The Globe from Nashua, N. H., says there is no doubt the Republicans will have a special session of the present legislature called for December. It is now Republican by 35 majority, and the term of the members do not expire until January. They will then officially recognize the census returns and will admit the new members, giving them a majority in the legislature. A conference of the leading Republicans is being held on the question.

Wisconsin.
WILWAUKEE, Nov. 8.—Official returns from the First district show the election of Clinton Abbott, Democrat, over H. A. Cooper, Republican. This leaves only one Republican congressman in Wisconsin, Faughen in the Eighth district, who has about 1,000 majority, and Bailey, the Democrat candidate threatens to make a contest. The legislature will probably elect ex-Secretary Vilas to succeed Senator Spooner. Peck, Democrat, for governor has a majority of 30,000.

Nebraska.
OMAHA, Nov. 8.—Returns from eighty-five out of eighty-nine counties in Nebraska give following totals on candidates for governor: Richards, 69,236; Boyd, 72,325; Powers, 71,143. The total vote of the state exceeds by fully 15,000 the vote cast for president in 1888, an increase which, in an off year, is extraordinary. While the contest is very close, a careful estimate gives Boyd a plurality of nearly 1,000. Estimates give the Republicans most of the state ticket.

Minnesota.
ST. PAUL, Nov. 8.—With all but three counties heard from, most of them official, the vote on governor stands: Merriam, Republican, 82,220; Wilson, Democrat, 80,663; Owen, Alliance, 52,440. Merriam's plurality 1,557. The other counties and the official figures from some of the counties already included in the count may change this a little, but not materially.

West Virginia.
WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Complete returns from the state gives Lucas, Democrat, for judge, 7,292 majority, the greatest Democratic majority for fifteen years. Four Democratic congressmen are elected by majorities ranging from 700 in the First district to 4,200 in the Third. The legislature is Democratic on joint ballot by 35, a gain of thirty-four.

Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Official returns from the state at large are just beginning to come in. The Democratic majority will be about 18,000. The only Republicans elected to congress are Waugh in the Sixth and Johnson in the Ninth district. Both houses of the legislature are Democratic with a majority of 69 in joint session.

Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Slight changes in the official count bring Pattison's plurality up to 7,258. Satres, Republican, for lieutenant governor, has 15,655 plurality, and Stewart, Republican, for secretary of internal affairs, 19,120 plurality. The legislature will be fifty Republican on joint ballot, a loss of fifty-two.

Illinois.
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The Tribune, Republican, figures give the standing of the next state legislature on joint ballot as follows: Republicans, 102; Democrats, 99; Farmers' Alliance, 3. The official returns will probably be necessary to determine the exact standing of the legislature.

Connecticut.
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 8.—The official vote of the state by the first returns which cast out the prohibition vote in many towns show Morris has 57 plurality. With the prohibition vote in he is defeated.

SLEEPER RAN INTO.

JUNCTION CITY, Ky., Nov. 8.—A sleeper on the northbound Florida limited express on the Southern railroad was run into by a Louisville and Nashville freight at this place at an early hour yesterday morning, and fifteen people injured. The accident was caused by freight train No. 35 of the Louisville and Nashville getting beyond the control of the engineer on a down grade. The passenger train of the Southern road had pulled up at the junction depot, which is used by both roads, the Southern and the Louisville and Nashville, and the rear coach, a Southern sleeper, was left standing across the Louisville and Nashville track.

The crew of the Southern train realized that something was wrong, and tried to get the train out of the way. In another moment the huge freight engine crashed into the sleeper, overturning it and injuring the following named people:

Fred. R. Shaler and wife.
D. B. Shaler, of Findlay, O., badly bruised.
Mrs. S. W. Wheeler, of Milwaukee, badly cut about the knee.
Mrs. Wheeler's child, bruised about the head.
B. N. Austin, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific railroad.
W. P. Hardee, of Jacksonville, Fla., general freight agent of the Savannah, Florida and Western railway.
H. F. Towsley, of Belvedere, Ill., hurt about head and neck and injured internally.

Theodore Coleman, drummer, Connelville, N. Y., right arm hurt.
T. Pickett, colored porter, Cincinnati, back hurt.
C. P. Crockett, colored porter, Cincinnati, both legs hurt.
Freight Engineer T. B. Meals, bruised.
Freight Fireman Fred Groves, bruised.
All of the injured except Mrs. Wheeler were able to continue their journey.
Mrs. Wheeler's condition is not dangerous, but she will remain at Junction City a day or so.

The Rails Spread.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—The through vestibule train from Chicago to Cincinnati on the Big Four road, jumped the track twenty miles south of this city Thursday while running thirty miles an hour. Three passenger coaches and the baggage car went into the ditch and the middle coach was badly smashed. Eighty passengers were aboard but no one was seriously injured, though many were bruised and scratched. There were many miraculous escapes. The wreck was caused by the rails spreading.

A Sleeper Thrown from a Trestle.
DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 8.—The Omaha Pullman sleeper "Sarmatia," from Minneapolis, was thrown from a trestle here yesterday, and falling twenty feet, lighted on its side in about three feet of water. The car is a complete wreck. Twelve persons went down with the car and all were more or less bruised. W. C. Bredenhagen, of St. Paul, who was hurt about the back, was the only one seriously injured.

THE SHELL EXPLODED.
One Man Instantly Killed and Several Others Wounded.

STATEN ISLAND, Nov. 8.—Shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a shell exploded in a casemate of the lower fort at Fort Wadsworth, killing one man and injuring four others. The men were at work tapping shells, which work consists of filling the shells with powder and getting them ready for use. It is not clear just how the accident occurred, but it is believed that some loose powder got into the primer and when the caps were being placed in position, the powder exploded the shell.

The last shell was about to be completed, and Nathan C. Lippman was standing in front of it, when it exploded and he was thrown with great force against a stone wall, his neck being broken and part of his abdomen was blown away. He was dead when picked up. John Davis, J. J. Keegan, George Heiness and Cook, who were in the casemate at the time, were more or less injured, but they were all able to walk to the hospital to have their wounds dressed. An investigation as to the cause of the explosion will be held.

A Youth Instantly Killed.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—Fred. Schmidt, aged 14, living at 1342 West Sixth street, was run over and killed instantly by switch engine 22, while attempting to cross the Big Four railroad track at Wood street at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. He was on his way to work. Patrol No. 4 took his mangled remains to the morgue.

Wages Advanced.
CLEVELAND, Nov. 8.—The wages of the freight engineers and firemen in the employ of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad company have been increased twenty cents a day.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

Extent of the Owensboro, Ky., Conflagration.

ONE QUARTER OF A MILLION.

Five People Missing and Believed to Have Perished in the Great Hotel—An Indiana Village Entirely Wiped Out of Existence—Four Hundred People Homeless—Other Fire Losses.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 8.—The fire that visited this city yesterday morning proved to be the most destructive one in her history, and when the debris is cleared away and order reigns it is feared that the conflagration will be found to have been attended with loss of life.

The fire originated in a pantry in the Rudd house, a handsome modern hotel, which was filled with sleeping guests. The fire had gained considerable headway before it was discovered, and then it rapidly gutted the house. The guests were awakened and ran out into the streets in their night clothing, while many, crazed by fear, jumped from the windows of the hotel.

Among these were two ladies and a child, both of whom are badly injured. William H. Hohn jumped from a third story window of the Rudd house, fell on his back and is fatally injured. There are five guests of the Rudd house who are missing and they are believed to have burned to death while sleeping.

Charles Lebeck, a traveling salesman from Philadelphia, and Charles Bareford, of New Albany, Ind., had a narrow escape and were badly burned.

A high wind was blowing at the time the fire originated, and after the hotel had been swept away the flames reached the Bank of Commerce building, next door, and that, with the buildings occupied by Marks & Dregan, grocers, and Quicksert & Company, merchant tailors, was soon in ashes.

The building on the corner, occupied by The Owensboro Messenger, with its costly outfit, was the next to be attacked and in a few minutes it was destroyed. The fire then spread around the corner and burned the buildings occupied by Marker's saloon, Smith, butcher; Williams, fur-fishing goods; John Reinhardt, fur; and A. J. Wadley's fine stone building and D. A. Evan's livery stable. The loss will reach $250,000; insurance unknown.

An Indiana Town Entirely Destroyed.
PETERSBURG, Ind., Nov. 8.—A terrible conflagration occurred at Winslow, a town of Pike county, this state, yesterday. The whole town has been wiped out of existence. The houses were all frame structures, and the fire spread with such rapidity that all the efforts of the people to extinguish it proved unavailing. Not a house is left standing, and 400 people are left homeless.

There is no fire department, and no provision was made for the sudden coming of such a calamity. How the fire originated has not yet been ascertained, but it is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. Several of the houses were close together, and once the fire had made some headway it was impossible to isolate it. There will be much suffering among homeless people.

Town Destroyed in Arkansas.
HARTMAN, Ark., Nov. 8.—Yesterday the entire business portion of this place was burned, causing a total loss of $27,000, on which there is no insurance. The individual losers are as follows: W. E. Rogers, general merchant; A. A. Burleson, druggist and grocer; Mrs. A. E. Vordman, whose two buildings burned; Mrs. V. J. Carr, general merchant; J. J. Cravens, general merchant, and Adkins' hotel. Two hundred bales of cotton at the depot and the depot building were also destroyed.

Nearly Half a Million Loss.
SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 8.—Fire broke out at 2 o'clock yesterday morning in the store of I. Sour & company, and spread to adjacent buildings which were destroyed. The loss is estimated at from $350,000 to $400,000, well covered by insurance.

HOORAY FOR OLD IRELAND!
Minister Egan's Cutting Remark Concerning a British Snob in Chili.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A special from Washington to The Herald says: An interesting dramatic story reached here through columns of El Comercio, of Valparaiso, Chili. The United States minister to that country is Patrick Egan, the well known Irish leaguer of Lincoln, Neb. On the 18th of September last the president of the republic gave a reception to the diplomatic corps and other distinguished gentlemen. Among the guests were Mr. Egan and a Mr. Thompson, the representative in Valparaiso of The London Times.

During the course of the evening, according to El Comercio, one of the attaches of the Chilean foreign office presented Mr. Egan to the English correspondent. The latter declined to accept the introduction. Covered with confusion the gentleman who had made the introduction began an apology to the American minister. Mr. Egan, who seemed to view the matter with amiable indifference, politely responded: "You have nothing to apologize for. A gentleman would not have insulted me and a blackguard can't."

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 8.—Edward Scull's election to congress from the Twentieth district will be contested by his opponent, Thomas N. Greevey, on the ground that it was obtained by bribery, misrepresentation and intimidation, and asks support in securing evidence to this effect.

WHILE RETURNING FROM CHURCH.

Fatal Quarrel Between the Sons of Prominent Families.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 8.—Two young farmers, living eight miles east of this city, quarreled while on their way home from church, and now one is dead and the other in jail charged with murder. Adrian McCracken and James Hopkins were sons of two of the best farmers in Daviess county. They were brought up together, and never had had a difficulty of the slightest nature.

When going home Hopkins playfully pulled at McCracken's coat-tails, and the latter kicked him. He then struck a match and waved it in McCracken's face. This greatly incensed McCracken, who called Hopkins a vile name. Angry words led to blows, which resulted in Hopkins drawing a revolver and shooting McCracken through the heart. He then ran home, leaving his victim lying, surrounded by a brother and sister and several friends. McCracken lived but a few minutes, and died by the roadside in great agony.

A report of the murder reached this city about midnight, and an officer went to the home of young Hopkins and arrested him. He did not know he had killed McCracken until he was arrested, and protested innocence of having intended to commit murder. "I shot at his legs," said he, when questioned. The affair has created no little excitement because of the known friendly relationship of the Hopkins and McCracken families.

Kentucky Ministers May Be Governors.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 8.—The division so far, as adopted by the committee, is almost verbatim that of the present constitution. The sections passed over are those upon which amendments have shown a difference of opinion. The first section not adopted was that which in the present constitution excludes ministers of religious denominations from the offices of governor and lieutenant governor. Judge Laban T. Moore wittily declined to speak, as he thought perhaps he was the only jurymen left who had not expressed an opinion, and called for a vote, which adopted the amendment which strikes out the exclusive clause.

Governor Campbell Ill.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Governor Campbell is seriously ill. He was taken sick last Wednesday and was confined to his bed. He had a high fever all day and complained of intense pain in his back. His physician thinks he is threatened with a severe attack of la grippe. The governor in closing two weeks of campaign made not less than twenty speeches in different sections of the state. It was most exhausting work, and following close upon the worry of the extra session of the legislature, it has completely worn him out.

Female Suffragists Awake.

MOBILE, Ill., Nov. 8.—The Illinois woman's suffrage convention Thursday closed its annual session. It was decided to make an effort at the next session of the legislature in favor of a constitutional amendment giving the ballot to the women. Friends of the cause in each district will be called on to use their influence with their legislators. A convention will be held in Springfield early in January. Conventions will also be called in each congressional district during February.

A Student Arrested.

TIFFIN, O., Nov. 8.—Some little feeling has been created here by the arrest yesterday of Farley Zartman, a member of the senior class in the theological department of Heidelberg university, on the charge of criminal libel in having published a scurrilous libel on Judge J. C. Boyer, in that he had accused him of the most heinous crime of which a married man could be guilty. Mr. Zartman was placed under bond of $3,000.

Was Drunk for Ten Years.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Henry Humphrey, a muddle-headed graduate of Columbia college law school, died from an epileptic fit caused by excessive drinking, at the American house Thursday afternoon. Ten years ago he inherited a fortune of $100,000, and he had scarcely drawn a sober breath since. He had squandered most of his fortune.

Ended Their Quarrel With a Gun.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—David H. Green, a special policeman, yesterday afternoon shot and killed Joseph Beaumont, an ex-special policeman. The shooting was the result of a quarrel during which Beaumont accused Green of circulating reports about him which led to his dismissal as a special policeman. Green was arrested.

Peculiar and Fatal Accident.

PAOLI, Ind., Nov. 8.—James Ballard, a merchant of Hillham, had an epileptic fit while out driving. He fell with his neck in the braces of his buggy and choked to death. The team turned off into a log road, tore loose from the buggy and ran away.

A Saloonist Robbed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 8.—William Balmer, a saloonist, while going home was held up by two strangers and robbed of $500, one covering him with a revolver while the other went through him. They then kicked him until he was insensible.

Coal Pile on Fire.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 8.—The Canadian Pacific railway officials have been notified that the immense piles of coal belonging to the company at Fort William were on fire, and all efforts to extinguish the flames were fruitless.

Blizzard Over Lake Superior.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 8.—A genuine blizzard raged over Lake Superior yesterday morning. Considerable anxiety prevails for the safety of the vessels out on the lake from Superior to Sault Ste. Marie.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

Proprietors.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1890

The Republicans were crying a month since "as goes Maine, so goes the Union." They will know better next time.

Quay will never know how it feels to "own a Governor." Pennsylvania is done with Delamater and his boss.

The Republicans will now proceed to fire Quay from their National Executive Committee if they know what's good for 'em.

The few Republicans in the next House of Representatives will feel rather lonesome scattered about among 230 or 235 Democrats.

The Kentucky Democrat is eleven years of age—old enough to hustle around and give its readers the election returns before they get stale.

The attention of the Maysville Republican is called to the fact that Covington didn't rebuke Carlisle at the election on the 4th. Not much.

WATCH the Republicans rally 'round James G. Blaine's standard now. They will all be in favor of reciprocity, and everybody knows that real reciprocity is only another name for free trade.

THERE is but one Republican in the Kentucky Congressional delegation chosen this week. That's settled. The Republican nominee, Hill, now concedes Kendall's election in the Tenth district.

THE usual time for Thanksgiving, draweth near, but the President has failed to issue the customary proclamation. He ought to be thankful that his party saved a few States from the wreck on the 4th.

THE Democratic Speaker of the next House, even if he should be so minded, will not have to resort to Reed's methods to count a quorum. Our majority is so large there will always be a quorum present.

At the election this week the regular Democratic nominee carried what is known as Randall's district in Philadelphia by 3,000 majority. There are not many Randall Democrats nowadays so far as the tariff is concerned.

THE BULLETIN invites us to look at Bruce's majority in Lewis. We just won't do it. There, now.—Maysville Republican.

Your refusal to gaze on it doesn't surprise us. It's so small it would take you a long time to find it, and you might hurt your eyes looking for it.

A PROMINENT Cincinnati Republican says he knows positively that $100,000 was dumped into the McKinley district by Republicans to save the apostle of protection. They were not successful, however. With a ballot system like Indiana's, the Democrats would have carried the district by not less than 1,000 majority.

REED and his gang unseated ten or twelve Democrats during the session of Congress just closed, but the people have returned these members and have at the same time retired many of Reed's crowd to private life. If any firing is done in the next House, Democrats will do it, and Reed will be the first to walk the plank.

It has been said for many years that Blaine "never opened his mouth but that he put his foot in it." On the Saturday before the late election he spoke at Philadelphia, and told his Republican friends that "as Pennsylvania votes, the Nation will vote two years hence." Well, the Keystone State has voted, and she now has a Democratic Governor-elect, and has added several Democrats to her Congressional delegation.

From the latest returns it appears that the U. S. Senate, after March 4, 1891, will stand 42 Democrats to 45 Republicans, with one seat from New Hampshire in doubt. Those Western "mining camps" admitted as States by the Republicans are all that saved the G. O. P. the Senate, if they have really saved it. Later returns may make it a tie. And only a week ago the Republicans were confident they had things "fixed" to retain control of the Senate for the next ten years.

"In every State where the Australian system of voting has been employed the Democrats have been victorious," remarks the Patriot of Harrisburg, Pa. It was thoroughly tested in Indiana at the late election, and look at the result—a grand Democratic victory. It prevented the Republicans and everybody else from using boodle, and secured an honest expression from the people. It is significant that the returns show the Democrats, in the fight for members of the Legislature, have carried many precincts which have been considered safely Republican heretofore.

Jumping on McKinley

"They are simply protest, or rather a revolt, against what has come to be known as 'McKinleyism'—an increase of tariff duties already high enough or too high, for the benefit of a class of manufacturers and to the injury of millions of consumers. This revolt means that, while the Republican masses are as much in favor of moderate duties for the protection of domestic manufactures against destructive foreign competition as they were in 1888, their minds are made up to have no more legislation for the sole good of Eastern mill bosses."

The Tribune adds:

"There are two ways in which to deal with the present landslide. One is by the President calling Congress together on the 5th of March and allowing the new House to have its free trade way, which would be followed by a popular revolution. The other is by doing away with McKinleyism and adopting Mr. Blaine's plan at the coming short session. That is the shortest and best way to get out of a bad scrape."

Evidently, the Republicans are relying on the Democrats to blunder and help them out of the hole, but the Democrats have learned a lesson. They are looking at the Presidency in 1892.

Maysville Should be Proud of It.

While in conversation with a Lexington gentleman yesterday about the business of our city, he frankly said we should be proud of our business establishments. They carry larger and finer stocks of goods than any other city in our State can boast of. "I have just had the pleasure," he added, "of meeting Captain Martin, one of Lexington's former citizens, and find he is proprietor of the Old Reliable Red Corner Clothing House, and was surprised to see the immense line of fine clothing he carries and to see his salesmen as busy as bees waiting on trade. The Captain in showing me through gave me some idea of how much cheaper the goods are sold here than elsewhere, which at once explained why he is doing a rushing business while merchants in other cities allow the trade to leave their doors and come to Maysville to buy goods."

This is no news to our citizens, as every one knows Captain Martin has brought the old Red Corner to the front in the past few years until it now stands second to none in the State. And you can hear it on all sides that if you buy from the Red Corner you can go home assured you have the worth of your money.

Greenwood Opera Company.

The New York Mirror says: "The Memphis prima donna, Miss Marie Greenwood, is winning golden opinions in leading roles with the Greenwood Opera Company. The New Orleans papers, which are not given much to gush, are very complimentary in their mention of her. The Picayune says: 'Miss Marie Greenwood has a surprisingly good voice, sweet and clear, and made friends with her audience immediately. What is remarkable in comic opera, she knows how to sing, and gave a sample of her accomplishments by introducing Ardit's Waltz Song, which was encored.'"

"The leading part in the Greenwood Opera Company," says the critical Times-Democrat, "is filled by Miss Marie Greenwood with taste. Her voice is fresh and flexible, with a wide compass and rather sweet notes."

This company appears here next Monday night. They have thirty-six singers and an orchestra that has been extolled everywhere they have appeared this season.

Pay Your City Taxes and Register if You Wish to Vote.

The Registration law says at city elections "no vote shall be received unless the name of the person offering to vote is on the registry lists, and section six of said law says: 'Every person shall be entitled to be registered who would be entitled to vote at the next succeeding January election for city officers, that is to say, every male citizen who on that day shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and shall have resided in the State two years, or county one year, or in the city one year, and in the ward in which he offers to register thirty days, and shall have paid all taxes in accordance with the charter, ordinances and laws of the city of Maysville.'"

This is How It's Working.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Nov. 6.—On account of the McKinley bill in increasing the price of materials, the Ohio Falls Car Company has lowered the pay of body-men on coaches $14 per coach.

For the Farmer.

The farmers in Kansas have just about half as much to sell this year as they had last season, but they get more than twice as much for it.

"From the foundation of the Republic the best friend of popular government, the most loyal defender of the Constitution, the most consistent advocate of simple, honest and economical government, has been the Democratic party." "DAVID B. HILL."

Rev. H. M. Wharton is engaged in a big meeting in the Baptist Church at Lexington. Thirty additions to date.

Elder Lucas will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow at usual hours. Young peoples' meeting at 6 p. m.

At Central Presbyterian Church to-morrow services by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject in the morning, "Jacob's Ladder."

Regular services at the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Wright, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Young people's meeting at 6 p. m.

M. E. Church, Third street.—Rev. Thos. Hanford, the pastor, will to-morrow night begin a series of four sermons on "The Bible and Science." Other services as usual. Skeptics, agnostics and atheists especially invited. All welcome.

The Railways.

Says the Fleming Gazette: "While at Midland City one day last week H. E. Huntington, of the C. and O., is reported as saying that the C. and S. E. would be extended from Hillsboro to Midland City at an early date, and the road will be made standard gauge from Johnson Junction."

The Chesapeake and Ohio have built yards of their own at Ashland and will, on the 9th inst., extend the run of the accommodations, which now go to Iron-ton, to Ashland, five miles further. The company is fostering the booming town of Bessemer, Va., and are building a foot, carriage and railway bridge over James river at that point.—Courier-Journal.

Is There Nothing New Under the Sun?

A leather Boot, absolutely water-proof and snow-proof, is a thing that would lay claim to such recognition. Were the assertion made that such a thing existed, doubt would arise on all hands and men would say:

Can This Thing Be?

For we have never seen a Boot made of leather that would actually turn both water and snow, and should there be such a thing we would regard it as a boon of great price. We claim to have just that thing; it is

The W. H. Means Waterproof Boot!

MAYSLEICK.

We are having some lovely weather for November. Fine for husking corn. The farmers are at it.

The election went off very quietly. No disorder, in fact it appeared more like the crowds on Saturday than an election. Small vote polled by the Democrats, but the coons were all there and their elder brothers.

One of our new converts walking down street last Wednesday was invited by a church member to walk into one of our saloons to take a drink, when he very politely declined and walked off. "Old Nick" was fooled that time. Let all the rest do likewise. Whiskey and religion don't mix worth a cent.

Comic Opera.

A very complete organization in every respect is the Marie Greenwood Comic Opera Company, who appear here next Monday evening. The costumes, scenery, etc., are entirely new this season. The company is a large one, and carries its own orchestra. The Cleveland Leader says:

The company appearing was the Marie Greenwood Opera Company. Miss Marie Greenwood, in the role of "Amorita," was all that the most enthusiastic lovers of comic opera could have desired, her singing winning for her the earnest applause of the delighted audience.

MINER'S MAXIMS

While the wisdom of being better late than never is quite apparent, much more obvious is the advisability of never being late.

Avoid mysteries.

To the inexperienced eye the religion of the man in the moon is not more mysterious than a pair of shoes. They may cover a multitude of manufacturers' sins, or they may be better than they seem.

Don't be shod in shoddy.

You can avoid it if you will. Miner's sole rule is to misrepresent nothing, and so his sole rules. He does not know whether the man in the moon is an Atheist or a Mormon, but he does know all about shoes, and a pair never leaves his store under false pretenses.

His square-toed shoes are matched by square-toed statements, and his round-toed shoes are encircled by no round-about claims. One thing worth remembering: Whether you pay much or little at Miner's, you receive an equivalent larger in proportion to the amount invested than you can obtain anywhere else.

That's the important point.

STORMS AND FLOODS.

The British Isles Swept by a Hurricane.

GREAT DESTRUCTION DONE.

Wharves Are Battered to Pieces by Great Waves—Many Vessels Plying Coastwise Have Been Wrecked—Houses Unroofed and Bridges Swept Away—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Violent gales and great floods prevail throughout the length and breadth of Great Britain. Houses in all parts of the country have been unroofed, bridges swept away, and wharves battered to pieces by rushing winds and sweeping waters.

It is already known that many vessels plying in the coasting trade have been wrecked by the furiously driving winds and enormous seas which sweep the entire coast line with irresistible force.

The storm rages with almost equal violence along the northeastern and eastern coasts of Ireland, and a report reaches this city that a pleasure yacht cruising in Irish waters has foundered in Belfast loch.

The greatest anxiety is felt by ship-owners, commercial firms and insurance companies, as well as by those absent on tours.

No disaster to incoming or outgoing Atlantic steamers, which are either known to be, or supposed to be, in the vicinity of the Irish or English coasts have been reported.

It has been ascertained that the pleasure yacht which foundered in Belfast loch during the storm was the Frania. The vessel dragged her anchors and was driven against the rocks with such violence that her sides were ripped open, causing her to fill with water and sink within a few moments after striking. Her commander, who was drowned, was Lord Canteloupe, a Scottish nobleman. The crew of the vessel succeeded in clinging to the rocks until relief came, and were almost miraculously saved.

The ship Elizabeth Roy has been wrecked on the Cory Island off the Irish coast. Six persons were drowned.

Business Prostrated at Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 8.—The terrible storm which is now raging in the British isles give no sign of abatement. This city has been made to feel its utmost force, and the damage inflicted in Liverpool and vicinity already great, threatens to become still more serious. Ships which should have left port last night are detained, not daring to face the awful wind and tremendous seas which roar about the western English coast. The telegraph wires connecting Liverpool with the outside world are in great part prostrated; railroad communication is seriously hampered, and the ordinary local traffic of the great city is seriously impeded.

Advertising His Mother.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—In response to a challenge issued to M. Bourey, a dramatic critic on the staff of The Courier Francaise, by M. Maurice Bernhardt, son of Sarah Bernhardt, both gentlemen met in the vicinity of this city yesterday and fought a duel. The weapons used were swords. M. Bernhardt slightly wounded his antagonist on the sword arm, whereupon the affair was closed, and after the surgeons had dressed M. Bourey's wound, principals and seconds went their respective ways.

Meeting of the Two Premiers.

MILAN, Nov. 8.—Prime Minister Crispien heartily greeted Chancellor Von Caprivi on his arrival at the depot here, and drove with him to the hotel, where a conference took place. The two premiers subsequently dined together. The journals cordially welcomed the German chancellor. The Lombardian says: "Italian opinion favors a cementing of the bonds of affection and common interests uniting Germany and Italy, and the promotion of peace."

Three Hundred Chinese Killed.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—At Tai-Ping-Fu, where are located the government mills for the manufacture of powder, a fearful accident has occurred. While workmen were engaged at their various occupations about the mills an explosion took place which completely destroyed the buildings and killed 300 men, besides wounding many others. The cause of the explosion has not yet been ascertained.

Escaping Jews Captured.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—The Russian police at Warsaw have intercepted 300 Polish Jews who were about to emigrate from the country to escape the persecution growing out of the recent ukase. The emigrants were forced to return to the village whence they came, and will be obliged to endure as best they may their unhappy lot.

Col. Price Will Die.

SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 8.—Col. Thomas B. Price, who was shot on a Missouri Pacific train Thursday afternoon by Judge John P. Higgins, can live but a few hours. Judge Higgins was arraigned before Judge Ryland, of the criminal court, and admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000. Col. Price made his will yesterday, and also an antemortem statement to the county attorney. In the latter the colonel says he slapped Higgins in the face for calling him a liar, and immediately afterward was shot by Higgins, who fired from the pocket of his overcoat. Col. Price is a son of the late Gen. Thomas L. Price.

HALIFAX, N. S. Nov. 8.—The British warships will sail hence on the 11th inst. There have been a large number of desertions, no less than twenty men having disappeared within three days. The men do not seem to care to go to Bermuda. Pickets are scouring the city for the deserters.

Killed by a Train.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 8.—Thomas McDonald, an Ohio and Mississippi machinist, was run over and killed by a passenger train in the yards here at midnight. He was intoxicated and had boarded the engine, falling to the track.
